

Code of Business Practice

1. PREAMBLE TO FGV GROUP’S CODE OF BUSINESS PRACTICE

- 1.1 Felda Global Ventures Holdings Berhad (“FGV” or the “Company”) and its Group of Companies* (collectively referred to as the “FGV Group”) place the highest priority in conducting its business with integrity. FGV Group fully supports the National Integrity Plan (NIP), which advocates good corporate governance, business ethics and corporate social responsibility.
- 1.2 The Board of Directors of FGV has thus adopted this FGV’s Code of Business Practice (“FGV-CoBP”) or the code to be followed by all Directors of FGV Group in the performance of their responsibilities with respect to FGV Group’s businesses. This CoBP shall be read in conjunction with Directors’ Code of Ethics & Conduct. The CoBP provides specific ethical business practices to be observed, adopted and embedded in all FGV Group’s operations and businesses.
- 1.3 The FGV-CoBP aims to enhance the corporate governance and business ethics and practices within FGV Group, in line with the National Integrity Plan to reduce and eliminate corruptions, malpractices and abuses of power.
- 1.4 As such, the FGV-CoBP generally outlines business practices which aim to promote, amongst others, the following:
- 1.4.1 Compliance and uphold the spirit of responsibility and accountability with applicable laws and regulations;
- 1.4.2 Honest, transparent, and ethical business practices;
- 1.4.3 Fair trading across all businesses and operations of FGV Group; and
- 1.4.4 Accountability for business performance as well as the broader social and environmental impacts of FGV Group’s activities, in line with FGV’s vision for sustainable development.
- 1.5 This FGV-CoBP has been developed to consider the various related prescriptions of the law and other ruling guidelines, namely the Rukun Niaga in the Malaysian Code of Business Ethics established by Ministry of Trade, Co-operatives and Consumerism, the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009, Anti-Money Laundering Act 2001, and the Anti-Corruption Ethics and Compliance Handbook for Business issued by Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).

Note – include FGV’s wholly owned Subsidiaries, Associate and Jointly-Controlled Entities in which FGV holds a controlling interest, established under the Corporate Structure of Felda Global Ventures Holdings Berhad.*

Code of Business Practice

2. APPLICATION OF FGV-CoBP

- 2.1 The FGV-CoBP applies to all Directors (Executive and Non-Executive Directors) of FGV Group, including their alternate Directors. The FGV-CoBP further applies to all businesses and countries in which the FGV Group operates. In view of FGV-CoBP's international application, some provisions of the FGV-CoBP may be modified to adapt the local jurisdictions where FGV Group is operating.
- 2.2 However, the FGV-CoBP is not an exhaustive document and does not address every possible situation. All Directors are responsible to familiarize and adhere to all applicable laws and regulations of the host countries and policies and procedures in which FGV Group operates. The FGV-CoBP shall be read together with FGV Group's Code of Ethics & Conduct for Directors.
- 2.3 When there is a conflict between the provisions of the FGV-CoBP and other FGV Group policies and regulatory and legislative provisions, the applicable law(s) shall apply. However, if the local custom or practice conflicts with this handbook, Directors are required to comply with the CoBP. Directors are advised to seek additional guidance, where required, from FGV's Company Secretary or Head of Governance & Risk Management Division. The administration of the FGV-CoBP shall be under the responsibility of FGV's Company Secretary. This FGV-CoBP shall be reviewed and updated as and when necessary.

3. RESPONSIBILITY AND COMPLIANCE WITH FGV-CoBP

- 3.1 The FGV-CoBP is approved and enforced by FGV Board of Directors. It is the responsibility of all Directors of FGV Group to set high personal standards by understanding and complying with this FGV-CoBP. All Directors, as a Board and as an individual shall endeavour to ensure that all Directors of FGV Group act in accordance with the principles of the FGV-CoBP.
- 3.2 Upon acceptance of his/her directorship with FGV Group, each Director becomes accountable for full compliance, under all circumstances, with the Directors Code of Ethics & Conduct, the FGV-CoBP and other applicable codes and policies of FGV Group. As evidence of the understanding and the declaration of compliance to this FGV-CoBP, each Director of FGV Group must complete the acknowledgement form upon commencement of directorship with FGV Group.
- 3.3 Failure to observe this FGV-CoBP may result in disciplinary action(s), up to and including dismissal of Directorship. Where violations of this FGV-CoBP may constitute as violations to the law, the violations may also result in civil or criminal penalties. Suspected violations shall be investigated, upon which FGV Board of Directors (or its nominated persons) shall determine appropriate action to be taken in the event that a violation is confirmed.
