

FGV Awarded “Palm Oil Plantation Company Of The Year” For Third Consecutive Year

Felda Global Ventures Holdings Berhad (FGV) has been awarded the 2015 Frost and Sullivan's Excellence Awards for “Palm Oil Plantation Company of the Year”. This is the third consecutive win for FGV.

The prestigious award acknowledges FGV's competitiveness in the market through its capabilities and best practices in its business operations and the company's exceptional growth throughout 2014.

“We are extremely heartened and are truly appreciative of this award, as it is a reflection of the strong team effort by all employees in FGV Group. The recognition is testament of FGV's continuous efforts to improve the practices and deliverables towards bringing FGV to be one of the top ten global agri-business player by 2020,” said Dato' Mohd Emir Mavani Abdullah, Group President and Chief Executive Officer FGV.

The award was received by Datuk Abd Halim Hamid, Head of Rubber Cluster of FGV on behalf of the Group at Mandarin Oriental Hotel, Kuala Lumpur, yesterday.

FGV has managed to remain competitive in the market through its capability of modifying its processes to cut cost and achieve high levels of quality in their output. With its continuous improvement in its strategy, FGV has managed to stay ahead in this competitive market space

“FGV has managed to remain competitive in the market through its capability of modifying its processes to cut cost and achieve high levels of quality in their output. With its continuous improvement in its strategy, FGV has managed to stay ahead in this competitive market space,” said Hazmi Yusof, Frost & Sullivan Malaysia's Country Head.

FGV was identified for the award based on in-depth interviews, analysis, and extensive secondary research conducted by Frost & Sullivan. The evaluation included revenues, market share, capabilities, overall contribution to the industry and identifiable best practices.

The Malaysia Excellence Award now in its eleventh year, aims to recognise Malaysian companies and individuals that have pushed the boundaries of excellence – rising above the competition and demonstrating outstanding performance in Malaysia.

 Ends ***