

FGV Donates RM300,000 from Infak Ramadan Saji Campaign

FGV Holdings Berhad (FGV), through its subsidiary Delima Oil Products Sdn. Bhd. (DOP) today handed over RM300,000 worth of donation to Yayasan FELDA, MERCY Malaysia and National Cancer Council (MAKNA), collected through its Infak Ramadan SAJI campaign.

FGV Group Chief Executive Officer, Dato' Haris Fadzilah Hassan said the Infak Ramadan SAJI campaign was launched on April 30, 2019, whereby 50 sen from each sale of SAJI 5 kilogram (kg) cooking oil will be donated to the campaign fund that runs throughout the month of Ramadan.

"This contribution is part of FGV's corporate responsibility initiative to the people, especially to the settlers and the less fortunate.

"The charity organisations were chosen based on the effectiveness of their past programmes and I hope with this contribution, many more beneficial programmes can be implemented," he said.

FGV's donation was handed-over to the selected charities by FGV Plantation Sector Chief Operating Officer, Tuan Syed Mahdhar Syed Hussain witnessed by Selangor Menteri Besar, YAB Tuan Amirudin Shari at the RASA Bubur Lambuk Mega event organised by Nu Ideaktiv - a joint venture company by Astro and Karangkraf.

This charity event where ADELA Vanaspathi is a co-sponsor, involves NGOs, IPTA & IPTS students, women's associations and masjid members assisted by local celebrity chefs to produce nearly 5,000 packs of bubur lambuk to be distributed to the local community.

A product brand under DOP, ADELA Vanaspathi is a vegetable oil fat which contains Vitamin E and free of trans-fatty acids and cholesterol.
