

Anti-Bribery Policy Statement

FGV HOLDINGS BERHAD

FGV Holdings Berhad is committed in applying the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity in its business activities by putting in place adequate policies and procedures to prevent corruption and bribery.

FGV Holdings Berhad is committed to:

- Encourage transparent and ethical conduct in the Group by providing avenues for employees to disclose improper conduct through whistleblowing channels as guided by the FGV Whistleblowing Policy.
- Report any corruption and bribery via FGV's whistleblowing channel and/or to Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) as in compliance to FGV Referral Policy.
- Control amongst FGV Group's employees and avoiding illicit enrichment by monitoring individual wealth sources in the Group through Asset / Personal Interest Declaration Policy (APID).
- Eliminate solicitation and bribery that may arise in the cause of giving and receiving of gift, entertainment and hospitality as guided by External Gift, Entertainment and Hospitality Policy (GEH).
- Undertake in the best interests of FGV Group, rather than for personal gain in performing our duties to FGV as guided by Conflict of Interest Policy.
- Manage Corporate Responsibility initiatives ethically to eliminate corruption and bribery as guided by Sponsorships & Donations Policy.
- Uphold good image of integrity, transparency and accountability in all aspects of its business through efficient, productive, and disciplined behaviour as anticipated and what have been set forth in the Code of Business Conduct & Ethics (COBCE).
